You cannot survive alone, there is always a reliance on someone. To the inhabitants of the underground, humans were totally alien. In order to protect themselves, the underground dwellers formed their own social system and established the first city below. Dezatopia was built as a city that the underground race could rely on and live in peace. "Dezatopia", the name bestowed upon the city, was shortened to "Dez", then it was shortened again to "De". It began to be referred to as just "De". In the end, it became just "De". The meaning of "Dez" was forgotten. Thus, it became just "De". It was the name that became lost. These "De" had come to live in the underground. They lived so far underground that they could not even see the sky anymore. How did they all survive in the underground? They ate soil from the soil bank and drank the water from the groundwater. How did they survive? The "De" had confidence in the underground that they lived in. They trusted in Dez. "Dezatopia" is the name for Dez. The underground city became a peaceful community and a thriving society. They became a force for the underground. And, they thrived. How? That is Dez's secret. The existence of this area has been kept secret. An area of pristine nature. What was beneath it? That will also be kept secret, but we feel safe about sharing this. Dezatopia's guardians call it the Algonquin. The sky was something to be respected. Facing the sky and facing the sun are two totally different philosophies. The guardians of this place almost never see the sky. There are very few people like that. The guardians live in an underground city they built for themselves. They live in the vast, empty city. A dark and mysterious place that remains shrouded in mystery. The guardians of this place call it Dez. They call it De. They can't remember its full name anymore. There is no book that tells the story of Dez. Nobody knows Dez's history. Nobody knows about Dez

What's new in Bang Bang Racing:

As well as storylines that see you and your mate battling monsters, you can also go exploring for legendary weapons. As well as quests to help free the heathens from the icy grip of the Erudara Empire, you'll also get on-going quest chains for every main country in the game. For example, Quill-Weave the Gaul has a holiday quest chain that involves him vacating his most secluded farm in Ingonia and en-route to the Arcadian lands you need an Erudaran spear to complete the quest chain The Continent Of Adventure The Prologue mission features Vanyavar who is after attending the Great Adventure Conference. En-route, his advances are stopped at sea by Shinaru and a need to get him to first class is required. During your quest chain, you will be teleported to The Galdan Desert in the province of the Empire. You'll also have conversations with Vanyavar, Shinaru and Vadyar (King of the Deserts). The first major quest chain deals with the Mine of the Moon and its King Nar the Frost Dragon Now you have the Gunner mage, we've also got the Ground warrior and Elementalist warrior. Come August, they will be making their way to the Archons - which is at the Frozen Outposts. Just spend some quiet time with the Moon miners and you'll be able to meet them before they leave. The Caverns Of Durathar Quill-Weave the Gaul has a holiday mission to clear out the Tir Tanghash Caverns of scavengers and mystical items. After doing this, he will travel to the gold mining caverns in the southern forests to see if he can find out some tit-bits about the Iceland and The Kingdom. Once he's through, he will depart to the Archons' stronghold on the Frozen Outposts. Monk knows ancients runes and can use them for some protection. In our case, he has 3 different runes at his disposal with a maximum of 7 usable. This prevents much in the way of other mages from interfering with Monk's production. As well as this, he can use runes which provide 1 of 3 buffs - Shield, Might and Piercing which work like heals in Clan Wars and Caravan Wars. This gives him a significant buff. The Temple Of Secrets "The Minion Placement Room has been completed and will be added
