B. Howard, for plaintiff in error. John M. Williams, contra. TOWNSEND, J. The record before us does not disclose whether or not the car in which the plaintiff was traveling was owned by a third person or had been loaned to her by her employer; whether she was proceeding on a special mission for her employer, or was performing the personal business of a passenger; whether or not she was under special instructions; or if under any of these circumstances, the defendant was actually doing the work of the employee. In her petition the plaintiff alleges that on the occasion of the injury the defendant was employed by the Jasper County Board of Education to change a school bus tire; that he negligently changed the tire and did not properly secure it, and that this failure was the proximate cause of plaintiff's injury. An application to dismiss the plaintiff's petition was filed by the defendant on the general demurrers alleging that
