To celebrate our 10th birthday, weâ€”re going to be giving away a bunch of products weâ€”ve been working on for the past few years. And not just any products eitherâ€”some real-world-usable software. Weâ€”ve just finished being selected for the Ubuntu Advantage program, and our partner Rich Lowe and I will be giving out a number of these Ubuntu Advantage System Builder kits. Each kit includes $35 worth of hardware, as well as all of the software needed to build a customized Ubuntu system to perform the specific task itâ€”s supposed to. Weâ€”re still waiting on the specifications for those kits, but if youâ€”re interested, weâ€”ll post them when we have them. And weâ€”ve got one more birthday thing that weâ€”ve been working on. A totally new set of Ubuntu VMs to look forward to, which will make their debut on top of Ubuntu 14.04â€”
